Regional Victoria has everything you need

Regional Victoria is the perfect place for your next business event – from its rugged coastline and spectacular mountains to its expansive tracts of wild bush country.

Every conference planner knows that where you have your event is as important as why you have it; if you get the venue right everything else just naturally falls into place.

Regional Victoria offers an outstanding array of world-class venues from which to choose, all uniquely different with each providing excellent service and professional support with state-of-the-art facilities.

Getting around Regional Victoria is quick, easy and accessible. The state has superb highways that make travel fast and simple and there are regular, reliable flights to many of the major regional cities. Alternatively, why not start the conference in style by taking a train ride and travel to the event in first-class comfort? Delegates will arrive relaxed and ready to start the event.

Of course, it's the pre and post conference activities that really make the event memorable. Regional Victoria continues to offer a host of diverse leisure opportunities – something for everyone.

Perhaps your guests would like to spend time in the fresh air of regional Victoria, hiking in one of the National Parks? Or toast the sunrise from the dizzying heights of a hot-air balloon? Maybe skimming down the ski slopes is more their style. Why not discover the spectacular coastline or the unique mountain ranges that have taken millennia to carve out this exciting landscape? Only these regions can be found in this remarkable and diverse state.

- Regional Victoria offers conference and business event organisers with a refreshing alternative to the fast paced city.

- Escape and enjoy the vast array of regional Victorian properties focused on the business events sector who pride themselves on the 'Clean Air, Country Alternative'.

- You are spoilt with a choice of diverse locations, professional service, quality, unique and cost effective venues, along with the abundance of team building activities, attractions and touring options.

- Whether it's a helicopter flight over the Twelve Apostles, a trip back in time in the goldfields, a winery tour of the Yarra Valley, or a river cruise down the mighty Murray, Regional Victoria has some of the most beautiful and diverse locations and venues.

- Regional Victoria excels in quality venues in diverse surroundings and has something to cater for all tastes and budgets. Victoria's compact size and excellent infrastructure means easy access.

- Taste it, feel it, experience it... conferencing in Victoria, we have got it all.

Choosing Regional Victoria is the easy part – now all you have to do is decide which spectacular region to enjoy.
