CROWN METROPOL

From the moment you take in the hotel's elegant form and enter the uniquely designed reception area, you will feel a sense of peace and calm that makes every visit to Crown Metropol a welcome escape from day-to-day life.

Sitting high above Melbourne, the hotel's day spa, ISIKA, is a peaceful, private retreat. ISIKA has been designed to ensure guests enjoy the ultimate in relaxation and rejuvenation of mind, body and spirit. Wellness retreat packages can be specially tailored for incentive groups.

The hotel is also home to Gordon Ramsay's first Australian restaurants, maze and maze Grill, which can seat up to 300 guests. maze also caters for small meeting groups held at Crown Metropol.

The hotel's exclusive bar and guest lounge, 28, is now available to host intimate events, boasting an outdoor terrace and stunning panoramic views of the Melbourne skyline. Lunches and dinners can be accommodated for up to 60 guests while cocktail parties can cater for up to 200 guests.

The Office is Crown Metropol's business zone featuring four meeting rooms that can each hold up to 50 guests theatre-style and is ideal for hosting meetings, presentations, intimate cocktails or private dinners. A dedicated business centre also includes two small meeting rooms for up to four guests, a private boardroom for up to 12 guests and internet stations.

Larger conferences can be accommodated at the adjacent Crown Conference Centre, which can cater for up to 840 delegates.
