Confidence, Experience, Style

With more than 30 years experience in the Exhibition, Event and Party industries, Harry's is the most capable, innovative and well resourced supplier in the market.

The strength and reputation of Harry's is a direct result of the quality, expertise and experience of the people who work for the company. Our team is technically adept, highly competent and committed – we care about what we do and strive for the best results that are characterised with our unique creativity and signature style. On principle, Harry's has continually sourced world-class product in order to remain at the forefront of high-end equipment and supply. We invest significant capital towards the ongoing replacement of stock, upgrade of product ranges and introduction of new and innovative product categories.

Exhibitions & Conferences

The Exhibitions & Conferences Department specialise in the design, planning and provision of temporary partitioning, sophisticated upgrade stands, custom fit-outs, floor coverings and furniture to support projects ranging from a five booth conference to a five hundred booth exhibition.

We have sales and operational staff in Melbourne and Sydney as well as extensive servicing of major shows in Queensland and South Australia. Our focus is on maximizing on-site efficiency, providing risk-free delivery and reducing the workload of our clients. Our reputation within the Exhibition and Conference industries is second to none and has led to our involvement in many of Australia's premier Exhibitions.

Lighting, Rigging & Audio Visual

In a world of ongoing technological advancement, Harry's remain the leading provider of technical event production to the Exhibition, Event and Corporate production markets. We stay abreast of the latest technical offerings in event lighting solutions to provide clients with captivating audio visual presentations, spectacular rigging installations and sophisticated operational requirements including advanced power reticulation to remote sites.

Events & Parties

Harry's have an unrivalled reputation in the dispatch, build and delivery of large-scale events. We deliver quality events on time, every time. A wedding, one-off extravaganza, product launch or family celebration, the Parties Department constitutes a turn-key solution – the right advice, the right product and the right customer service. The Victoria Racing Club, Australian Grand Prix Corporation, Tennis Australia and the Australian Football League each rely on Harry's to partner their signature events and deliver the ultimate event experience. Our clients respect our ability to continually go above and beyond and appreciate the significant efficiencies which are derived from our ability to deliver on such a diverse range of event requirements. We strive to exceed expectations and are committed to innovation which has been exemplified with the recent introduction of the world-leading, double storey Absolute Structure that has revolutionised corporate entertainment at major events.

Custom Design

To stand out from the competition, you need to be bold, courageous and creative, but most of all memorable.

The Custom Design Department has extensive experience in delivering sophisticated and impeccably finished, custom built installations to the Event and Exhibition industries.

Our professional team of Designers, Builders and Account Managers have been providing creative and functional live-brand solutions for more than 30 years and accordingly, our experience in transforming a client's basic concept into a high-end custom build is significant. We pride ourselves on working closely with our clients, listening to their objectives and delivering an outstanding product, characterised by imagination and functionality.
