Testimonials

“ In partnership with ICMS, I have organised 15 successful meetings and two more in the future. Their team listen to your needs; are tactful in reigning in unrealistic expectations to ensure financial success; develop achievable budgets; have effective financial reporting and excellent registration and administration skills.”

Dr Robb Stanley,
Department of Psychiatry, Austin Health

“ I work on the principle that conference management is a win-win partnership. The key to success is the ability to work harmoniously with honesty and transparency, meeting deadlines and our Society's goals. ICMS has worked effectively to achieve all of the above since 2002.”

Dr Caroline Hong,
Australasian Society for Ultrasound in Medicine

“ ICMS had an immediate understanding of our needs to attract over 1,000 plastic surgeons and 300 exhibitors. They discovered venues for the social events, not even our local organising committee knew about. ICMS speak the same language and that is important to us.”

Catherine B. Foss,
International Society of Aesthetic Plastic Surgery
